PRESENT: Cllr Reid, Chair. Cllrs Bailey, Buxton, Burgess, Connerton, Dobson, Page, A Patterson, T. Patterson, Smith & Stanton

APOLOGIES: Cllr Oxspring

IN ATTENDANCE: 9 members of the public; PC D Appleby, Derbyshire Constabulary; & D.Cameron (Clerk)

POLICE REPORT

The Chairman welcomed and introduced PC Appleby to the Parish Council. Pc Appleby gave a brief introduction and explained his role within the Safer Neighbourhood Team for the area.

PC Appleby went on the report a number of burglaries in Clowne over the past weeks and asked homeowners to be extra vigilant. He explained that parishioners can do many small things to lessen the risk of burglary. Report ANY suspect activity on 101 immediately.

PC Appleby explained the routing of calls made on the 101 telephone, all calls are dealt with by Central Office and routed through to local areas for action.

A parishioner expressed concerns regarding details of a recent telephone/delivery scam being investigated within the South Yorkshire area. PC Appleby asked that the public are mindful not to make contact with any unusual company by phone before checking out details (i.e. regular supplier /order delivery etc). PC Appleby explained he would check out with local Intel on this issue.

The Chairman thanked PC Appleby for his report, wished him a Happy & Safe Christmas and New Year and looked forward to seeing him at the next meeting of the Parish Council in January 2016.
